

RESOLUTION AMENDING ZONING ORDINANCE
MADISON COUNTY, GEORGIA

WHEREAS, the Madison County Board of Commissioners (herein "Board") deems it proper and necessary for the health, welfare, and safety of the citizens of Madison County to amend certain provisions of its Zoning Ordinance (the "Ordinance"); and

WHEREAS, all procedural and substantive requirements of state law and local ordinance pertaining to amendments to the Ordinance have been met;

NOW, THEREFORE, this Resolution (herein "Resolution") is adopted as follows:

ITEM ONE.

A definition is added to Article III as follows:

“Stack House: a structure used for storage of animal waste produced by animals located on the same parcel or on an adjacent parcel under common ownership. Storage is not permanent, the waste being eventually transported off-site or put to use on-site, in its original or altered form.”

ITEM TWO.

Should any sentence, section, subsection or provision of this Resolution or application thereof be declared invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such declaration shall not affect the validity of the Zoning Ordinance of Madison County, as amended, as a whole nor any part thereof that is not specifically declared to be invalid or unconstitutional.

This amendment of the Zoning Ordinance of Madison County, Georgia, shall take effect and shall be enforced from and after the date of its adoption, the public welfare demanding it.

Approved by the Madison County Board of Commissioners on the _____ day of _____, 2017.
